The screenshot displays the DJ Mixer Professional software interface for Mac. The main window is divided into four decks (A, B, C, D), each with a waveform display and various controls like BPM, sync, and cue points. A central BPM window is open, showing a BPM value of 85.93 and options for manual input or automatic detection. The bottom of the interface features a song browser with columns for No., Title, Artist, BPM, Time, Genre, Key, Comment, Album, Track, Year, and Filename.
